Our support of the United Nations Global Compact

Sigmer Technologies has certain ethical responsibilities as a company. These concern both our responsibilities with regard to our customers and our responsibilities to our employees.

We work for many charities and voluntary organisations and our staff enjoy working for a company that has high ethical standards.

We are a signatory of the United Nations initiative in respect of the Global Compact for human rights.

Sigmer Technologies Ltd supports the ten principles of the Global Compact in respect to human rights, labour rights, the environment and anti-corruption, and we have expressed our intent to support and advance those principles within our sphere of influence.

The ten principles of United Nations Global Compact

Human Rights

Principal 1 - Businesses should support and respect the protection of internationally proclaimed human rights

Principal 2 - Make sure that they are not complicit in human rights abuses

Labour Standards

Principal 3 - Businesses should uphold the freedom of association and the effective recognition of the right to collective bargaining

Principal 4 - The elimination of all forms of forced and compulsory labour

Principal 5 - The effective abolition of child labour

Principal 6 - The elimination of discrimination in respect of employment and occupation

Environment

Principal 7 - Businesses should support a precautionary approach to environmental challenges

Principal 8 - Undertake initiatives to promote greater environmental responsibility

Principal 9 - Encourage the development and diffusion of environmentally friendly technologies

Anti-Corruption

Principal 10 - Businesses should work against all forms of corruption, including extortion and bribery.
